

Unleash The Power Of Partners

When you want talent management solutions that drive organizational performance, Career Partners International has the power you need!

Career Partners International is the world's largest and most successful talent management consultancy headquartered in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Through its global footprint of more than 270 offices in over 47 countries around the world, organizations of all sizes turn to Career Partners International for expertise to successfully assess, engage, develop and transition talent.

Career Partners International assures that its global clients have local experts in career management, talent development, leadership coaching and career transition services. All offices deliver consistent, best-in-class services to meet our high performance standards.

Career Partners International Talent Management Capabilities

Assess

- Individual, Team & Organizational Assessments
- Competency Modeling

Engage

- On-boarding & New Role Integration
- Career Planning & Management
- Retention Strategies
- Succession Planning
- Performance Management
- Change Management

Develop

- Executive Coaching
- Leader Development & Coaching
- Team Building & Development
- Career Development
- Succession Development

Transition

- Outplacement/Career Transition
- Redeployment, Transfers & Promotions
- Spouse/Partner Relocation
- Retirement Planning
- Workforce Planning

The Power of Community

Our more than 1600 accomplished and highly dedicated professionals live and work in the community and share your commitment to its success. As business owners and leaders in the local community, we share that passion too. That's why at Career Partners International we have an enthusiasm for delivering beyond expectations and achieving the utmost excellence in all that we do to propel our clients' successes.

The Power of Performance

Simply put, we achieve great results for our clients. Every day, companies ranging from small businesses to Fortune 50 industry leaders, choose to partner with Career Partners International to effectively respond to their changing business needs. We take the time to serve as your trusted advisor, listening to you, understanding the business objectives and issues you face, and providing strategies to meet those head-on. Our unique business model of local ownership with global resources allows us to customize and deliver innovative, flexible and practical solutions aligned to your business to drive your organization's performance. We measure our success through your success!

The Power of Commitment

Large or small, all of Career Partners International's clients receive the very best! With a focus on personal attention and a single-minded philosophy to provide the highest quality solutions, our clients receive consistent, best-in-class services at every Career Partners International location around the world. Our commitment to excellence spans all of our talent management services and includes our state-of-the-art technology. Our proprietary web portal provides clients and employees 24x7 access to real-time tools and thought leadership on workforce issues that impact talent management and organizational performance. We are committed to talent management innovation that drives business results.

Are you ready to drive your organization's performance? Unleash the power of Career Partners International today and experience the results.

careerpartners
INTERNATIONAL
Twin Cities
Accelerate Career Potential™